Precautions

- Do not open the casing. Refer servicing to qualified personnel only.
- Operate the unit only on 6 V DC.
  For AC operation, use the AC power adaptor supplied with the unit. Do not use any other AC power adaptor as it may cause a malfunction of the unit. For battery operation, use four size C (R14) batteries.
- The nameplate indicating operating voltage etc. is located on the bottom of the unit.
- Unplug the AC power adaptor from the wall outlet when it is not going to be used for an extended period of time. To disconnect the AC power adaptor, pull it out by grasping the AC power adaptor itself. Never pull it by the cord.
- When the internal batteries are not to be used for a long period of time, remove them to avoid damage caused by battery leakage and subsequent corrosion.
- Do not leave the unit in a location near heat sources such as radiators or air ducts, or in a place subject to direct sunlight, excessive dust, mechanical vibration or shock, or in a car with its windows closed.
- Should any solid object or liquid fall into the unit, remove the batteries or disconnect the AC power adaptor, and have the unit checked by qualified personnel before operating it any further.
- Since a strong magnet is used for the speaker, keep personal credit cards using magnetic coding or spring-wound watches etc. away from the unit to prevent possible damage from the magnet.
- If the unit has not been used for a long period of time, set it in the playback mode to warm it up for a few minutes before inserting a cassette.

Note on cassettes longer than 90 minutes
The use of cassettes longer than 90 minutes is not recommended except for a long continuous recording or playback. The tapes used for these cassettes are very thin and tends to be stretched easily.

Note on cassette types
For recording, we recommend the use of TYPE I (normal) tapes only. Do not use TYPE II (CrO2) or TYPE IV (metal) tapes.

If you have any questions or problems concerning your unit that are not covered in this manual, please consult your nearest Sony dealer.
